

SS Great Britain Brunel's Transatlantic Liner

Speaker: Ian Caskie, Tour Guide, SS Great Britain

This illustrated talk tells the remarkable story of the SS Great Britain from her original design through the different phases of her working life. It also describes life on board and her incredible salvage and return to Bristol in 1970, and finally her restoration, preservation and re-launch as a multi-award-winning museum of international renown.